

Alphavision is a member of HAPCO and TCVB

- HAPCO-Hellenic Association of Professional Congress organizers

HAPCO promotes Greece as one of the leading conference and meetings destination within the international market with activities that focus on the continuous improvement of Greek congress tourism. HAPCO's members come from diverse backgrounds of the meetings industry and stand out for their dynamic involvement. Thanks to their specialization, know-how and considerable experience, they ensure that the organization and management of national and international association conferences, corporate meetings and incentives are up to the highest professional standards .

- TCVB-Thessaloniki Convention and Visitors Bureau

The organization consists of and is supported by a number of members drawn from the city's enterprises that work in the field of conference tourism, providing a wide range of services in connection with the organization of conventions, meetings and other related activities. Among the many enterprises represented are organizers of congresses, public relations firms, suppliers of audiovisual systems, travel and tourist agencies, caterers, restaurants, and retailers. Several leading bodies in the city have been declared honorary members of the bureau for their contribution.